RE: Santos Porfirio Torres

CONTINUATION:

The subjects were subsequently transported to the McAllen Border Patrol Station to be processed accordingly.

Once at the station, Homeland Security Investigations Special Agents (HSI) interviewed Torres after it was discovered that Torres was using a fraudulent document to claim the relation to the juvenile and further their unlawful entry into the United States.

PRINCIPAL STATEMENT:

Santos Porfirio Torres was read his Miranda Rights. He understood and agreed to provide a sworn statement.

Torres stated he was not the father of the child and was only traveling with the child to successfully gain entry into the United States. Torres admitted that he obtained the child's fraudulent document to show he was the father. Torres claims he was traveling to Indiana to reside with his uncle.
